

I am extremely angered and dissappointed with the superbowl half-time show. Not only am I mad at the Breast shot but in general with the sexually laden content dispaled throughout the show. The crotch grabbing and gyrations exude sexual promiscuity. A fine display of trash while kids of all ages are glued to the tv. It seems that the FCC is part of this problem by relaxing it's stance over the years. Its time you guys start doing the right thing instead of appeasing hollywood.
